Administration Council" (Gesamt-Verwaltungsrat) was to be set up at the premises of the DTV, Charlottenstr. 6, Berlin W8. This council was to consist of nine persons, as follows:

Heinrich Rau, President of the DWK
Willy Rumpf, President of the DTV
Dr. Bögesack, Vice-president of the DTV
Vollmer, director of the DTV
Two additional directors of the DTV, so far unknown
One member of the FDGB, so far not announced
~~Hort~~ <sup>Hortyn</sup> (sic), Soviet officer from SMA Potsdam
One further Soviet officer from the Administration Council,
SMA Karlshorst

Comment: Rumpf was replaced as president early in November
(by Felix Müller.)

2. The order directed that the auditing section of the DTV should be removed from immediate DTV direction and made responsible to the General Administration Council. The purpose of the reorganization was said to be to accomplish a unified inspection of the publicly owned factories and of the Soviet AGs in the Soviet Zone of Germany and in the Soviet sector of Berlin. It was added that numerous cases of corruption in the states of the Soviet Zone, which the state governments were either unable or unwilling to investigate energetically, had given rise to the order. The General Administration Council was alone authorized to receive and evaluate reports from the auditors concerning their investigations. In cases of unusually serious offenses on the part of the factory managers, the Administration Council alone was to determine the necessary
